

“Your Farm-Keeping It Profitable, Keeping It in the Family”

August 27, 2009

Jackson Experiment Station

605 Airways Blvd.

Jackson, TN

The Tennessee RC&D Program will be conducting this outreach workshop for women, minorities and limited resource farmers, and those with disabilities who are actively engaged in agriculture.

Planned topics for the workshops include Value-Added Agriculture & Ag-Tourism, Tennessee Century Farms, Farm Preservation, Assisting Agricultural Producers with Disabilities, Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Improvement, Estate Planning, Women & Minorities in Agriculture and Farm Support & Conservation Programs.

Presenters include the USDA-Farm Service Agency, USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service, USDA-Rural Development, The Center for Historic Preservation, Land Trust for Tennessee, Tennessee AgriAbility Project, University of Tennessee Extension Service, The Center for Profitable Agriculture, the Tennessee Farm Bureau Federation and the Tennessee Department of Agriculture. Onsite registration begins at 8:00 AM. The workshop starts at 8:45 AM and ends at 3:30 PM. Lunch is free.

For more information
Debra Blankenship
Debbie.blankenship@tn.usda.gov
Telephone: 731-668-7770 ext. #100
Fax: 731-668-8510